

Kangana Ranaut visits Wave Cinemas, Noida to talk about her upcoming movie Revolver Rani

Noida, April 18, 2014: Kangana Ranaut, one of the leading ladies of Bollywood who is currently promoting her upcoming movie – Revolver Rani visited Wave Cinemas at The Wave Mall, Noida today. Revolver Rani which is an upcoming Hindi comedy drama is presented by Wave Cinemas with Kangana Ranaut & Vir Das in leading roles and directed by Sai Kabir.

Revolver Rani which is due for release on April 25, 2014 is a satirical and unusual love story set against the backdrop of politics with Kangana Ranaut's character which is politically inclined and has whimsical dreams. At the Platinum Lounge at Wave Mall, Noida Kangana shared details on her character and how this role takes forward her millennium woman image. While promoting her movie in Noida today, she expressed her gratitude to the makers of the movie – Wave Cinemas and Director Sai Kabir for giving her a chance to showcase her ability to play a quirky, independent and rustic woman of today's village setting.

Kangana's visit to Wave Cinemas, Noida is a part of her multi city tour to promote Revolver Rani, which is due for release next Friday.